A bit of the story ...

An amazing collective of inspired women are featured at www.womansfieldguide.com in the Spotlight on Exceptional Women section.

Award-winning author, Corrie Woods, wanted to share news about great women doing great work. She began by spotlighting a few whose messages she knew would resonate with readers of her book, but she found she could not stop there. At latest count twenty women are featured and the collective of exceptional women is rapidly expanding.

These are women who walk their talk, are showing up in the world in amazing ways, who have great things to offer, and who Corrie is thrilled to spotlight.

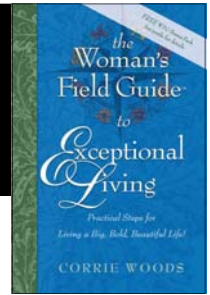

This resource guide features a sampling, and definitely not all, of what these women have to offer.

To Note: Corrie provides this in the spirit of collaboration and does not receive referral fees from the women featured.

You are invited to learn more about this project and these women at www.womansfieldguide.com
